MESSAGES

Dear friends

It gives me immense pleasure to write a message for MRACON 2024 to be held from 18th to 20th October at beautiful Pench National Park, Nagpur.

Rheumatology is one of the most interesting & challenging sub- speciality of Internal medicine.

Conferences such as MRACON gives opportunities to young Rheumatologists to learn from stalwarts & also showcase their work through research papers. It is an excellent forum for academicians to put forth their wisdom and to update their knowledge for better delivery of medical education, patient care & healthcare at large.

I am sure this conference will be a grand scientific extravaganza. I thank all, the organizing secretary, the scientific committee for their continued efforts in making this conference a success.

Dear Colleagues,

Welcome to all faculties and delegates It is my proud privilege as the Organizing secretary of MRACON-2024 to welcome you all to the scientific bonanza in the lap of nature, at Pench National Park on 18th, 19th, and 20th October 2024.

This conference will bring an opportunity to connect with many fellow Rheumatologists across the state, hear from eminent experts of the specialty, discover the details in a specially-theme, and share knowledge and ideas in our interactive sessions. This is a unique opportunity to be a part of a magnificent event. I once again appeal to you to save the dates and allow us to serve you. The organizing committee is making tremendous efforts to ensure that it becomes a memorable experience for all of you.

Awaiting your Presence for the Conference.
